If you're not travelling in a private motor vehicle, we would recommend getting to Bridgewater Apartments by Uber or metered taxis. Both services will offer reliable, safe and relatively affordable fares from the CBD, the V&A Waterfront and the Cape Town International Airport.

Getting around in Century City

From Bridgewater Apartments, it is easy to reach the attractions of the Century City precinct. Day or night, it is safe to walk practically anywhere in this privately managed estate with its extensive network of constantly monitored CCTV cameras. Roads and walking trails are well sign-posted and well-lit, and open many beautiful views and natural areas. Walking will also give you the opportunity to see the outdoor art works of century City Art Trail.

Another way to get around Century City itself is on the MyCiTi buses that run around the ring road of Century City regularly – which is also a very convenient way to get from Century City to the West Coast, the CBD and the V&A Waterfront. You'll find a MyCiTi bus stop on the Century City Boulevard, less than 250 meters from Bridgewater Apartments.

So much to do within an easy stroll of the Bridgewater Apartments

The Bridgewater Apartments is centrally situated in Century City's exciting Bridgeways precinct, which features a wide variety of attractions you can walk to. Within 500 meters of the hotel, you will find:

- Century City Conference Centre
- Hillsong Church
- Virgin Active Health Club
- Heat Studios
- Century City Hotel Bridgewater
- Ratanga Park
- Half Moon Bay Piazza
- Canal Walk Shopping Centre

Within one kilometer of the Bridgewater Hotel, you can reach:

- Intaka Island Nature Reserve

So many menus to choose from!

Staying in Bridgewater Apartments will give you access to an amazing array of restaurants, bars and cafés that are quick and easy to get to on foot.

Just downstairs you'll find down Gusto, a 90-seater contemporary Italian restaurant with great views, a warm ambience, a wood-fired pizza oven and an awesome tapas-style menu. Gusto will welcome you anytime of the day, whether you're looking for a quick meal or a great place to work all morning on a couple of espressos.

Just across the courtyard of the Bridgewater One complex is a Bootleggers Coffee Company and another few hundred meters away are the eateries and coffee shops that line the Century City Urban Square: Urban Umami, La Parada, Tiger's Milk and Seattle Coffee.

Cross the Urban Square and you'll get Akiya Sushi, while across Century Boulevard you'll find Mozambik in the Colosseum Building and, in the Marriott Crystal Towers Hotel, two more great dining options: Towers and Hussar Grill. Stroll across the Crystal Towers Suspension Bridge and you'll have another twenty restaurants to choose from in Canal Walk Shopping Centre.
